Dakini Day Practice - Kurukulle

Thursday, August 17th, 5-6 pm

Awam Tibetan Buddhist Institute, 3400 E Speedway, Suite 204, Tucson AZ
(Located just east of Whole Foods in the Rancho Center)

Our Dakini Day practice and tsok on Dakini Day of the lunar calendar is taken from a series of four practices from HH Dudjom Rinpoche's The Dakini Heart Essence: (1) Yeshe Tsogyal as the outer dakini, (2) Kurukulle as the inner dakini, (3) Simhamukha as the secret dakini, and (4) Troma as the innermost secret dakini. We rotate through these four practices. The next practice will be Kurukulle. Texts will be provided. You may bring a simple snack food to be included in our tsok offering. FREE. Donations gladly accepted.

Friday Movie and Potluck Rent Party

Friday, August 18th, 6-8:30 pm

The Lost Treasures of Tibet* and *Mustang - Journey of Transformation

Awam Tibetan Buddhist Institute, 3400 E Speedway, Suite 204, Tucson AZ
(Located just east of Whole Foods in the Rancho Center)

We are delighted to share another Buddhist movie and potluck dinner.

Before Leonardo da Vinci painted "The Last Supper," Tibetan craftsmen were creating stunning artistry of their deities in the remote Himalayan kingdom of Mustang. In "Lost Treasures of Tibet," NOVA goes behind the scenes with the first conservation team from the West, as it undertakes the painstaking restoration of these ancient masterpieces and the beautiful monasteries that house them. In the course of their restoration work, conservators from the West come face-to-face with a thorny problem of culture clash: local people want missing sections of the murals completed. Westerners are aghast at the idea, but their hosts are equally shocked at the thought of worshipping unfinished deities.

Another shorter movie called Mustang - Journey of Transformation will also be shown. This movie is narrated by Richard Gere and tells more of the story of a Tibetan culture that has pulled back from the brink of extinction through the restoration of its sacred sites.

Please bring a friend and some food to share. While there is NO CHARGE for attendance, we do appreciate donations of however much you can contribute toward our monthly rent for this beautiful space. Thank you for your generosity and consideration.

Fall Classes - Tucson or Online

Starting Week of September 17th

Awam Tibetan Buddhist Institute, 3400 E Speedway, Suite 204, Tucson AZ
(Located just east of Whole Foods in the Rancho Center)

We are planning three classes in Tucson for this Fall, as well as many others online. Here is a brief description of the Tucson classes. Online class descriptions may be found on our website AwamInstitute.org, under "classes".

Basic General Courses

We offer a variety of general courses to supplement our Essentials of Tibetan Buddhism and Advanced Dzogchen curricula. These are divided into two categories - Basic and Advanced. They are open to all students, though they should have some general familiarity with Buddhism in general and Vajrayana (Tibetan Buddhism) specifically. The two categories provide some guidance regarding the degree of background and practice that will be helpful to prospective students. Additional details are included in the individual course descriptions. Please contact us at EmailAwamTBI@gmail.com if you have questions about any particular course.

100-Day Ngondro - Sundays at 1 pm in Tucson: This class will be divided into two 7-week parts, completing the entire 100-day practice, and is a prerequisite for most advanced Vajrayana practices. The ngondro (preliminary practices) provide a very important foundation for the practices of tantra or Vajrayana, yet the high number of repetitions often required can become a serious barrier to lay practitioners. The great master Longchenpa shows us how to accomplish this in a more compact package. This course is also an excellent refresher for advanced practitioners who have completed the ngondro practices previously. They get even better through repetition.

This class is based on a book by HE Jigmed Lodro Rinpoche - one of Awam's Tibetan teachers - explaining the 100-Day Ngondro as described by Longchenpa.

Ngondro is essential to establishing our attitude and motivation through the Four Thoughts that Turn the Mind. Then, our mental obscurations, afflictive emotions and other mental fixations are systematically addressed through refuge, bodhicitta, Vajrasattva purification, mandala offerings, and Guru Yoga. In addition, these practices provide a solid understanding for advanced Vajrayana practices. Fee: $70 each part. (The text is currently being finalized for use in these classes.)

Study & Practice of the Essentials of Tibetan Buddhism

Essentials of Tibetan Buddhism provides is a very thorough program for those who wish to learn, but have limited time to practice. To supplement these, we also invite master lamas to give empowerments and teach on specialized topics and texts in Tucson.

The teachings by Khenpo Drimed Dawa are all on video, supplemented with printable handouts. This program is organized around a very concise series of practices given by Padmasambhava in a text translated as Natural Liberation and is supplemented by similar concise practices from other masters. These practices are particularly appropriate for householders as most take little time to learn or master and were taught specifically for such practitioners. Together they form a carefully crafted set of incremental steps leading to the deep inner peace of innate happiness or enlightenment.

More specifically, the teachings are divided into an introduction and four main paths of practice that are sequential within Tibetan Buddhism: (1) the Path of Individual Liberation, (2) the Path of Altruism, (3) the Path of Tantra, and (4) the Path of Great Perfection. Within each path, the courses follow a teaching by the Buddha called the Three Trainings: (1) ethics, (2) meditation, and (3) wisdom. So within each path, the courses cover that view of ethics, its main meditation practices, and its view of wisdom. In the end, there is a review and focus on the realization of the deep inner peace of the innate happiness of enlightenment. The text for this course is Innate Happiness: Realizing Compassion-Emptiness by Khenpo Drimed Dawa, available as an eBook or paperback from Amazon.com and other outlets. This text was written specifically for this course, as well as to benefit others who might read it.

Essentials Part 1 - Sundays at 9 am in Tucson (also available online): A survey of Buddhism in India and Tibet, an overview and introduction to key Vajrayana principles and practices, and the first part of the Path of Individual Liberation: ethics and shamata meditation - single-pointed calm abiding. The text for this course is Innate Happiness: Realizing Compassion-Emptiness by Khenpo Drimed Dawa, available as an eBook or paperback from Amazon.com and other outlets. This text was written specifically for this course, as well as to benefit others who might read it. Fee: $60.

Essentials Part 2 - Sundays at 9 am in Tucson (also available online): Continues the Path of Individual Liberation with vipassana meditation (special insight) regarding "self" and "other" and the early view of wisdom; followed by the Path of Altruism (Bodhisattva): ethics, practices of the Six Perfections, Tonglen (giving and taking) and Metta (lovingkindness) meditations, and the Bodhisattva view of wisdom, including the Perfection of Wisdom literature, Buddhature, and the Middle Way. Fee: $60.

Essentials Part 5 - Thursdays at 10 am in Tucson (also available online): Continues the Path of Tantra with the completion stage practices: inner heat, channels-winds-drops, illusory body, and dream yoga to become a buddha in this lifetime. (Note: The Tucson class will start with week 4 of this part - The Bardos on p.

243 in the text, where it left off in the spring.) Fee: $30 for remaining 3 weeks, if not previously paid for the full class.

Advanced Study & Practice

Our advanced curriculum is focused on the Path of Great Perfection - Dzogchen. This includes five rigorous college-level courses with two 8-week parts each, which require watching videos, reading, study, homework, and practice. Each course also includes the study of at least one classic text from the Dzogchen tradition. We require that students attempting this curriculum complete the core curriculum or the equivalent prior to beginning this curriculum.

Introduction to Dzogchen (Parts 1 & 2) - TBA in Tucson (also availableonline): Dzogchen or the Great Perfection is the highest level of the Vajrayana teachings. It deals directly with self-liberation into our innate Buddha Nature, abiding in the state of rigpa. This overview describes the three branches of Dzogchen teachings-the mind series, the space series, and the special instructions (including trekcho and togal). Text: Quintessential Dzogchen: Confusion Dawns as Wisdom translated and compiled by Eric Pema Kunsang and Marcia Binder Schmidt and The Golden Letters translated introduction and commentaries by John Myrdhin Reynolds. Fee: $80 for each part.

Innate Happiness: Realizing Compassion-Emptiness

Khenpo Drimed Dawa's book on the complete path of Tibetan Buddhism for householder yogis and yoginis

Paperback and eBook versions available

Khenpo Dean is known for his concise, clear explanations of the dharma. Innate Happiness provides background and a series of concise, incremental steps toward compassion-emptiness - enlightenment - for Western householder yogis and yoginis in the Tibetan Buddhist tradition. It provides thorough coverage of the essentials of Tibetan Buddhism, largely adapted from the teachings of Padmasambhava, the second Buddha. The book guides the reader through a brief history of Buddhism in India and Tibet, as well as its major principles. This is followed by 52 concise daily practices on the Path of Individual Liberation, the Path of Altruism, the Path of Tantra, and the Path of Great Perfection. Each path takes the reader through the Three Teachings: ethics, meditation, and wisdom. These are then summarized into an explanation of the innate happiness we know as enlightenment, the realization of compassion-emptiness. Thus, it covers a complete cycle for study, contemplation, meditation and realization. Each practice is highly suitable for the busy lives of Westerners with little time for formal meditation. This is also the core text for our Essentials of Tibetan Buddhism classes.

The eBook is available from Amazon.com for only $9.99. Free readers are available for most computers and other devices. The paperback version is available for $17.95. May ALL beings be happy!
